SUMMARY

Intaba Construction Group is a South African company duly registered in 2014, and owned by a black ownership. Intaba Construction Group owner and manage has ten years of experience in the building construction and development projects industry.

The formation of the Intaba Construction Group owner came about due to subcontracting of the owner of the company to other big construction companies and the owner Mr. Innocent Malipa spent many years subcontracting without any formal overhead, which the current opportunities in South Africa the Intaba Construction Group was formed to implement projects on its own. The current target market is very Co-operate or consulting company that does not have the construction division in its capacity. The Government entities and any private job that is set as a maximum value set by the company.

Intaba Construction Group has been in operation for as a short while, it is still in its infant stage. It has meet all its financial startup costs, human and material resources; we have made use of professional, consultants, which we paid high fees for some strategy planning assistance. This shows commitment to professionalism and future growth.

Strategy has been set up and aligned with the Government strategy of growing the SMME sector and empowering the previously disadvantaged individuals. Intaba Cnstruction Group employs more than ten part time workers per project, from local communities.

MARKET SEGMENT

Intaba Construction Group will focus on two markets within the industry, the residential segment (including apartment buildings) and the commercial segment which includes building used for professional.

The company can handle any size building that needs its services. It's the goal of the company to eventually have approximately one third of all business coming from the commercial segment, since this generate the greatest cash flow. Furthermore this segment has the lowest percentage of variable costs. The residential segment is considered to be the company's cash flow. Even during the slow winter months the company can expect to have a small number of residential contracts.

Initially the company will focus on the three segments in just the Gauteng Province, Western Cape Province and Polokwane regions. However by the end of three year projects the company expects to be serving the entire South Africa Nation and also international countries in SADC.

Dear client

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE CONTRIBUTIONS ACT, 2002
APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION

1. This is to confirm that you have now been registered with the Fund as an employer. Your reference number that should be used in all correspondence with this office is as indicated above.
2. Contributions are payable monthly and payments must reach this office within 7 days after the end of the month for which contributions are due. For example: Payment of contributions due for January, must reach this office on or before 7 February, etc. Important: To avoid unnecessary penalties and interest, please ensure that your payments reach the Fund within the prescribed period.
3. Section 9(5)(a) of the Act also provides for payment of the full amount of the total contributions in respect of a financial year in a single payment within 7 days after the beginning of that financial year, subject to the following conditions:
 - 3.1 The total contributions due must be made within the boundaries of a financial year or liability period. "Financial year" or "liability period" means the period commencing on the first day of March in any year, or from the first day of liability providing such a date falls within a current financial year, and ending on the last day of February in the following year, or the last day of liability providing such a date falls within a current financial year.
 - 3.2 The employer may not deduct the employee's share of the total contributions due "up-front". Deductions must still coincide with intervals of payment of remuneration.
 - 3.3 If the amount of a payment already made is less than the amount that should have been paid, the employer must as soon as possible pay the outstanding amount. Arrear contributions may not be deducted from the earnings of an employee.
 - 3.4 If it subsequently becomes known to the employer that any payment made was not due or payable, or was in excess of the amount due or payable, the employer must refund to the employee such amount or excess amount as has been deducted and overpaid by the employer, despite the amount not having been refunded to the employer by the Unemployment Insurance Commissioner. Such refunds must then be claimed from the Unemployment Insurance Commissioner on an annual basis and after the end of the relevant financial year.
4. Permission to pay other than monthly or annually up-front cannot be granted.
5. Where the 7th day is not a "business day", payments must be made on or before the last "business day" prior to the 7th day. "Business day" means any day which is not a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday.
6. A penalty of 10% as well as interest at the prescribed rate are payable on all overdue or underpaid contributions.

7. Payment of contributions can be done as follows:

- 7.1 Direct Deposit/Electronic Transfer via any of the following Banks or via the uFiling facility - Please refer to item 9 below:

	ABSA	FNB	NEDBANK	STANDARD
Account Number:	4055481885	51420056941 (Business) 62052400547 (Domestic)	1454041560	010032185
Branch Code:	323145	253145	145405	0045
CDI Number:	--	--	--	0068730083641

8. IMPORTANT: DECLARATION OF EMPLOYEES

- 8.1 In terms of the Unemployment Insurance Act that came into effect on 1 April 2002 (Act No. 63 of 2001), benefits can only be paid to unemployed workers whose details appear on the database of the Fund. This means that if employers fail to declare the details of employees from whom contributions are being collected, they will not only be in contravention of the law, but will also be causing hardship to the workers when they lose their jobs, as the processing of claims will be delayed.
- 8.2 Declarations can be submitted as follows:
 - By completing a UI-19 form and submitting it to the Fund or the nearest office of the Department of Labour. Forms are obtainable from the Fund, nearest office of the Department of Labour or via the website www.labour.gov.za; or
 - By submitting an electronic declaration. Specifications for the submission of electronic files are available from the UIF
9. In addition to the payment and declaration methods mentioned under items 7 and 8, the uFiling facility is also available. Please log on to www.ufiling.gov.za and follow the easy to use instructions.
10. Please notify this office in writing of any changes in your registered particulars, or if you cease to be an employer.
